W-FILTER GmbH donates to Kinderhospiz Sterntaler e.V.

Speyer, May 2019 – A generous donation form W-FILTER had been warmly received by Kinderhospiz Sterntaler e.V.

Together with Stefanie Seiler, the newly appointed mayor of Speyer, a donation cheque of EUR 500. - had been handed over by Dirk Waldow, the owner and managing director of W-FILTER to Linnford Nnoli, the speaker and head of public relations of the Kinderhospiz Sterntaler e.V.

"The support of such important institutions should be a key issue of our societies", notes Stefanie Seiler and underlines the importance of all social professions and the extraordinary commitment and dedication of all staff members of the Kinderhospiz. The donation campaign of W-FILTER was highly welcomed by the major and hence her attendance immediately confirmed at the location.

Linnford Nnoli explained the content and activities of the association, which supports families, whose children are life-shorteningly and incurably ill und accompanies them on their burdensome way.

The excursion started at the premises of the institution, which is located in a former mill in Dudenhofen and concluded at the just as impressive new building. Stationary Kinderhospiz provides all parents, Sterntaler-kids and their siblings a homely and loving atmosphere.

"We are thankful to the support of the donors, who make a valuable contribution and enabling the necessary resources for maintenance as well as needed and sensible renewals", notes the Sterntaler-Speaker in connection with the hand-over of the cheque. In addition to our ambassadors, we are pleased the importance is also underlined by the city and municipals and explicitly by the major of Speyer", added Linnford Nnoli.

"I am thankful being able to celebrate my 50th birthday healthy this year and would like to give something back to the society with this donation. Especially to a group of people who ought not to be able to celebrate such an event", reaffirmed Dirk Waldow his commitment. With great interest did he follow the explanations of Linnford Nnoli together with Stefanie Seiler.

"It is highly impressive to see, in which familiar environment each person brings in themselves – even while doing my community service (ISB) caring for handicapped people, I was able to experience this kind of spirit", added the socially committed business owner. "I am honored having been able to jointly hand-over the donation cheque with the mayor of Speyer, which confirms the support on a personal and corporate level but also the importance and the consent from the region", declares the head of the family business.
